

3g. Required ASC Regional Training

Nevada Volunteers requires that program directors attend the annual ASC Southwestern Pacific National Training Conference. Programs are required to include travel and conference fees in their budget. This conference is a great opportunity to connect with other program directors and stay up to date with changing national service regulations and trends.